Silja Serenade / Silja Symphony

Travel to UNESCO world heritage sites - beautiful treasures around the Baltic Sea

Helsinki – green city with nordic exotism, characterized by modern architecture and trendy design, hot fashion labels and large cultural events and festivals which take place right in the heart of the city.

Stockholm – Scandinavia's largest city is one of the most beautiful capitals in the world, is built on 14 islands connected by 57 bridges. With its 750 year history and rich cultural life, Stockholm offers a wide selection of world-class museums and attractions.

Riga – art nouveau in "Paris of the north"

Riga is the Baltic metropolis, featuring a picturesque old town and cozy cafés alongside the buzz of a big city. Many young people all over Europe have discovered Riga as the fun town for the new generation.

Tallinn – medieval and modern Tallinn is a city of contrasts. It is a medieval Hanseatic town situated side by side with the 21st century city of modern glass buildings. Old Town of Tallinn is included on the UNESCO World Heritage List.

Romantika

RIGA-STOCKHOLM

Festival and Romantika cruise ships operate on Stockholm-Riga route. There is a departure from each city every day. Both ships offer a good range of accommodation up to spacious Suites. This mobile entertainment center has a lot to offer, for example a show bar, pub, disco, a variety of restaurants, children's playroom and many other possibilities to enjoy the voyage. Enjoy the soothing seas and get ready to discover the adventure in the new port that is waiting for you!

STOCKHOLM-HELSINKI

The Stockholm-Helsinki route is operated by two of the most luxurious cruise ships in the world, the sister ships Silja Serenade and Silja Symphony. In the heart of both ships there is a 142 m long glass-roofed Promenade which can be seen through cabin windows on both sides of the Promenade.

The Promenade is lined by restaurants, bars, shops and boutiques - just like a high street on sea. First class accommodation, award-winning restaurants, world class entertainment, facilities for conferences and a variety of shops are all at your service. Enjoy the services of the tropical recreation center with a sauna and warm pools or relax in a beauty salon.

A-class cabin (with a seaview)
